The President, in accordance with the By-Laws and resolutions of the Board of Trustees, shall supervise and direct the course of instruction and discipline of the College.

II.

RULES.

1. Every student shall be subject to the laws and government of the College, and show in speech and behavior all proper respect and obedience to the Faculty. Any transgression of this law may be punished even to expulsion, as the nature and aggravation of the case may demand.

2. If any student shall be guilty of an injury to the person, property or premises of a fellow student, or of any other person within the town of Canton, or deface, or in any way injure the College walls, furniture and buildings, he shall make satisfaction therefor, according to the nature of the offense or injury, and be also subject to such punishment as the case may require.

3. Every student of the University, during the hours of study, shall abstain from hallooing, singing, loud talking, playing on a musical instrument, or other disorderly noise in the College or around the College Buildings.

4. No student shall go out of town, so as to be absent from any College exercises, without leave first obtained from the President or some member of the Faculty.

5. Whenever any member of the Faculty shall be satisfied that a student is guilty of frequenting bar-rooms, billiard-rooms, saloons, or spending evenings in them and playing games; or of disorderly behavior; or of keeping improper company ; or of idleness, or profane language, or profaning Sunday ; or of the habitual use of intoxicating drinks ; or, that he is frequently absent from his room late at night, or in study hours, without sufficient reason ; he shall admonish him of his behavior, and if he continue un-reformed, it shall be notified to the Faculty, who shall admonish him again, and make known his case to his parent or guardian ; if he continue still un-reformed, he shall be sent home, and shall not be admitted again except by a major vote of the Faculty.

6. Every student shall be answerable for all vicious, seandulous and immoral conduct during the several vacations, or when absent by leave, in the same manner as in term-time when present.

7. Study hours shall be from the first recitation hour in the morning, till dinner time ; and from the first recitation bell in the afternoon, till five o'clock ; and from eight to ten o'clock in the evening.

8. Monthly reports of the standing and conduct of each student are made to his parents or guardian by the President ; hence, if a student falls behind in his studies, or becomes disorderly, it is quickly known to those most interested.

III.

PAYMENT OF BILLS.

No student shall be permitted to enter on a second, or any succeeding term, until he shall have paid, or made satisfactory arrangements with the Treasurer for the payment of the fees of the preceding term.

IV.

It is earnestly desired by the government of the University, that the students may be influenced to good conduct and diligence in study, by higher motives than the fear of punishment.

The sense of duty and honor, and the generous feelings which belong to young men and women engaged in honorable pursuits, are appealed to as the best regulators of the student's conduct.
